RE: Change of Address (Pursuant To Docket 99-25)

Dear FCC Commissioners and Staff:

Since I am about to file Written Comments in the re-opened proceedings in FCC Docket 99-25 -- which concern Low Power FM, Low Power AM, translator reform and other measures to promote broadcast localism -- I wish to inform the Commission, and other commenting parties, of my new snail mail address:

Don Schellhardt, Esquire
Liberal Studies Program
Hollins University
P.O. Box 9536
Roanoke, VA 24020

Previously, my snail mail address was in California. However, in June of this year I transferred from the Master of Arts in Asia Pacific Studies (MAPS) program, at the University of San Francisco, to the Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS) program at Hollins University. I am now pursuing an interdisciplinary curriculum which includes and integrates American politics (with an emphasis on women in politics), East Asian studies and Creative Writing.

My E-Mail address remains pioneerpath@hotmail.com and my permanent cell phone number remains (415) 637-5780. I also have a temporary landline phone at (540) 362-3344, but this number may change in the very near future.

Respectfully submitted,

Don Schellhardt, Esquire
